1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The right to be protected from sexual harassment and sexual assault is guaranteed by the Constitution of India. This right is reiterated by the Directive Principles of State Policy contained in the Constitution, which are to be construed harmoniously with the fundamental rights.
- 1.2 Crimes against women are an unacceptable violation of several human rights, demanding strict punishment with deterrence to prevent similar crimes in future. Considering that sexual harassment of women at the workplace is still rampant in India, Parliament has enacted the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 (“the Act/POSH Act, 2013”).
- 1.3 The policy is made under the overall ambit of the Hindusthan National Glass & Industries Limited (HNGIL “the Company”) Code of Conduct.

2. OBJECTIVE

- 2.1 The object of the policy is to provide protection against sexual harassment at HNGIL & its various businesses and for the prevention and redressal of complaint of sexual harassment and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto, as prescribed under the Act.
- 2.2 Whilst this policy will apply for redressal and handling of complaints at HNGIL, all provisions of the above Act will continue to apply over and above the expressed provisions of the policy.
- 2.3 Sexual harassment can occur between the employees of the same sex or opposite sex at the workplace or outside the workplace. This Policy has been framed for the purposes of preventing, prohibiting and redressing sexual harassment of employees of all gender at the workplace of every business within HNGIL having regard to the provisions contained in the Act, which are based on fundamental principles of justice and fair play.
- 2.4 While complaints by women employees shall be dealt with in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 the Company shall investigate complaints of sexual harassment made by any employee irrespective of gender under its Code of Conduct and disciplinary framework.
- 2.5 To have Zero tolerance for sexual harassment and to educate the employees about what conduct constitutes sexual harassment & the ways and the means which, we are adopting to prevent the occurrences of any such event and inform the employees regarding the penal consequences of sexual harassment.
